Spanish Speaking Hints

Communication Multiplied #3

The future

Voy a = I am going to

Talking about what you are going to do in the future in Spanish is very easy.

Just like English you can put I am going in front of the verb, like this;

Voy a visitar a mi amigo	I am going to visit my friend
Voy a rentar un coche	I am going to rent a car
Voy a ver las pirámides	I am going to see the pyramids
Voy a hablar con usted	I am going to speak with you

How to say I am going to go

The Brick Verb to go = ir

I am going to go	Voy a ir
I am going to go to Spain	Voy a ir a España

How easy is that? And the good news is it's all that EASY.

So let's move on.

Note: If you haven't read Shortcut to Spanish yet, it is a great addition to this course. It shows you how to use 31 categories of Spanish words that you can create instantly from English words, giving you an almost instant vocabulary of 3013 words.

Spanish Speaking Hints
Accuracy pointer #3

People get an A

If, you use the Spanish verb "invitar" it is always followed by the letter a, like this;

Voy a invitar a Diego.                      I am going to invite Diego.

In Spanish when a verb is followed by a person you use the "personal a". To invite is always followed by a person so you always use the personal a.

Me gustaría invitar a David.              I would like to invite David.
Voy a invitar a mi amigo.                  I am going to invite my friend.

Sometimes to visit is personal

The verb to visit can be followed by a person and the "personal a".

For example

Voy a visitar a Mario en la casa.      I am going to visit Mario in the house.

And sometimes to visit is not personal

If you visit a place not a person.

For example

Voy a visitar México.                      I am going to visit Mexico

Only when it is personal do we use the personal a.

Take a look at a few more examples with people and the "personal a".

Voy a visitar a mi amigo.                  I am going to visit my friend.
Voy a invitar a la familia.                  I am going to invite the family.
Voy a llamar a la profesora.              I am going to call the professor (teacher).
Voy a ayudar a la gente.                  I am going to help the people.

Be bold with your Spanish

Okay, it is time to call a spade a spade. The personal a that I have just taught you is grammar.

Grammar yuck! Grammar can be unhealthy to your Spanish. Too much focus on grammar can cause hesitation. If you hesitate trying to use perfect grammar, you will lose your listener.

I have seen it many times. It is horrible to watch.

I have seen people's communication ability go backwards as they try to be perfect. They speak so slowly nobody can stand to listen to them.

- Be bold!
- Risk making a mistake.
- Everyone makes mistakes.
- Mistakes help you learn.

The worst thing that I could do to you would be to cause you to be hesitant in your Spanish.

When you get out there in the real world and use Spanish, you will have to be bold. If you get bogged down in the minor stuff, you will lose the opportunity to communicate.

And communication is what this course is all about.

So I have shown you the "personal a" so you can do the exercises. But the "personal a" is minor stuff. When it comes to speaking Spanish it is the major stuff you need to master.

What is the major stuff?

- Synergy Verbs
- Brick Verbs
- Mortar
- pronunciation

Learn them deeply to express yourself instantly.

The Synergy Verbs, Brick Verbs and Mortar will give you the ability to communicate and be understood. Communication is what makes travel a joy. It's what makes better relationships with Spanish speakers and what counts in an emergency.

Make your goal to communicate in Spanish and be understood. Get perfect later.

Go ahead and learn the Spanish "personal a". You will need it to do the exercises. But when it comes to speaking remember, be bold.

Congratulations, you have made another successful step in your Spanish progress.

Remember, everything you are learning is Spanish to use in the real world right away. Your challenge is to learn it so well that you can produce Spanish at will, whenever you want.

How can you make producing Spanish spontaneous?

Easy! Practice and repetition.

You will get a lot of practice and repetition as you do the exercises in this course. Then as you meet and use your Spanish in the real world you will find yourself producing Spanish spontaneously.

Producing Spanish takes a little time, but it will come. In fact, you may already have noticed that understanding the Spanish sentences is easier than producing Spanish.

Why?

Well, to understand the Spanish you have all the triggers right in front of your eyes. To make Spanish sentences you have to dig them out of your memory before you can produce them.

Just keep practicing, use the words and structures over and over. They will begin to feel more natural. Sooner or later you will find that a Spanish sentence just comes out of your mouth without you even thinking.

Remember, you only need to master 138 words. That is not many words, but you have to know them very deeply. And knowing them deeply comes from repetition.

Let me ask you something, Can you imagine George W. Bush's face?

Pretty easy right, you don't even have to try.

Why?

You have seen that face so many times on TV it is familiar to you.

Same thing with Spanish words and structures, see them and use them often enough and they will just pop into your mind on cue. Then you will be creating spontaneous Spanish and you are going to enjoy Spanish even more.
